

©CLM 1582

APR 26 1920

New Screen Magazine.

No. 64

Amel

THIS issue introduces us to the most novel honeymoon on record—one which cost only $23. It was taken last year by Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Wilson of New York and it was spent "roughing it" in the woods. Even an automobile was included in this marvelous feat.

Margaret Wade Grinager shows us gowns which ought to be a delight not only to womenfolk but to everybody with an appreciation of the beautiful—morning and afternoon creations in delightful and delicate shades.

Cinema Luke was never funnier than in this issue when he attempts to become a golf "champ" without realizing the most important rule—to keep eyes glued on the ball. Naturally Luke gets into a lot of trouble thus providing his audience with a lot of laughs.

Few folks are aware of the fact that the apparently harmless tiger lily is a flower of prey. Its victims are principally the honey bees, who in gathering nectar from the flower, are helplessly enmeshed in a sticky substance which the blossom exudes, thus meeting their death. Hence the name "tiger" lily.

Laughographs as usual have a little corner of their own in the magazine. This time we are introduced to some of the humorous answers of youngsters to examination questions.

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection,
1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress